TOURNAMENT RULES & INFORMATION

Take off is in the order which entries are received.

Entrants may pay at the ramp on Saturday.
(Tournament day entries are CASH ONLY).

NO off limits. NO trolling. NO wading. Artificial lures ONLY.

Five fish limit, 12-inch minimum.

Fish will be measured on a flat board.

Short fish will be DISQUALIFIED - IT'S THE LAW!

Over limit will be culled to limit, starting with the largest fish.

Eight ounce penalty per dead fish.

One pound loss per minute for late returns to a maximum of 15 minutes. Disqualifications result after 15-minutes.

NO alcohol or drugs.

Polygraph tests will be given if deemed necessary.

Stay 50 yards away from any boat anchored, trolling motor up.

Boat motor must not exceed HP rating plate.

Safe boating must be conducted at all times.

Life jackets and kill switch must be on when the big engine is running.

Radios and phones to be used in emergencies only, NOT to locate fish.

All protests must be submitted in writing within 15 minutes after weigh-in.

Culling must be done on the lake, not at weigh-in.

Decisions made by the tournament officials will be final in all matters.

 Payouts are based upon a 100-boat field. A smaller field will result in a lower, pro-rated payout. (60% of the entry fees will be returned as prize money.) $28 of the entry fee is tax deductible.
